- 2) All bids are per lot as numbered in this catalog.
- 3) We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale.
- 4) All successful bidders shall be billed for postage, handling and insurance.
- 5) NASCA reserves the right to reject any bids not made in good faith and further reserves the right to ban any bidder from participation in its sales for any reason deemed appropriate at our sole discretion.
- 6) A NASCA auction bidder expressly waves any claim or right to an accounting, damages or compensation arising out of NASCA's failure to receive or execute any bid due to exclusion from our sales, clerical errors or other causes. No bids will be accepted from any person who has not signed a registration form or a bidder sheet.
- 7) United States coins and currency will not, in conformity with law, be opened at less than the face value.
- 8) No "buy" or "unlimited" bids will be accepted. We will act as agents for all mail bidders in the sale. Mail bids will be opened at the next interval over the second highest bid except where the intrinsic or regular market worth of the item dictates an opening at its fair market value. Floor bidding intervals will have an average increment of about 5% at the discretion of the auctioneer.
- 9) In the case of a tie between a mail bidder on the book and the floor, the mail bidder shall take precedence.
- 10) All bids must be in whole dollar amounts; this includes percentage increases.
- 11) Check your bid sheets carefully. We can not assume any responsibility for errors made in the amount bid or lot numbers listed. Make sure your sheet is signed.
- 12) No minors may participate in our sales. Agents bidding on behalf of others will be held liable if their principals fail to make payment.
- 13) Payment for purchases is to be made in cash upon receipt of invoice. No lots may be taken away unless paid for in full. A late charge of 1½% per month will be charged on the invoice total if payment is not received within 10 days of mailing the invoice. Bidders not known to us are required to deposit 25% of their bids in advance.
- 14) Title does not pass until payment in full is received. NASCA reserves the right to await clearance of any check before making delivery.
- 15) If a collection agency attorney is required to collect outstanding accounts, all agency and court costs, witness and attorney fees and all other costs of any kind incurred by NASCA shall be borne by the defendant. The signer of a NASCA bid sheet or participant in the auction concedes the jurisdiction of the courts of New York State or the U.S. in New York City as NASCA alone shall elect. The participant in a NASCA auction also assumes both corporate and personal liability for unpaid auction bills.
- 16) New York State sales taxes or other state sales or use taxes shall be levied, as required by law. Dealers and other non residents are reminded that sales tax must be collected unless Form ST-128.1 has been filed properly, under regulations effective 1 December 1982.
- 17) NASCA may reopen the bidding on a lot under the following circumstances: 1) NASCA has failed to execute correctly a mail bid. 2) A party purchasing the lot on the floor has done so in error. 3) Where a protest is made after the hammer has fallen but before the bidding has commenced on the next lot. 4) Where the auctioneer has determined that he has overlooked a party still bidding on the lot but before the calling of the next lot. 5) At the discretion of the Auctioneer.
- 18) In the event of any dispute, the decision of the auctioneer is final.

GUARANTEES AND RIGHTS OF RECOVERY

- 19) No price adjustments will be made on the hammer price of a lot whether there is a complaint about the whole lot or only one item in it. The entire lot must be returned if a refund is to be made.
- 20) Persons placing bids are responsible for meeting the maximum amounts represented on their bid sheets. NASCA reserves the right to reject frivolous complaints and to take appropriate actions against such bidders under paragraphs 5 and 15 above.
- 21) All material in this catalog is guaranteed to be genuine unless otherwise described.
- 22) No lots may be returned by floor bidders except for non-authenticity.
- 23) Mail bidders may return lots for reasons of non-authenticity or improper description within 5 days of receipt or forty-five days from the auction's last day, whichever comes first. Failure to execute this privilege in a timely manner either from a failure to pay promptly or from any other cause shall void it.
- 24) In cases where a question has arisen as to the authenticity of an item, the purchaser must, before settlement day (45 days after the sale), notify NASCA of his intention to return the item, confirmed in writing. The item will be examined by a recognized expert; if the item proves authentic, the sale will be consummated. If the item is not authentic, the sale price will be refunded.
- 25) In the event of litigation the plaintiff shall pay NASCA's legal costs, counsel and witness fees and all other costs incurred by it in defense against such suit together with interest on any funds expended at the prime rate at Morgan Guaranty Trust Company from the date of actual disbursement.
- 26) The same protections applicable here to NASCA apply to each and every one of their officers and employees unless they shall be convicted of knowingly selling false or stolen goods.

Ship's passport, also signed by John Marshall, as Secretary of State and William Ellery (signer) as Collector of Customs. Marshall later became Chief Justice. DS, horizontal folio, February 3, 1801, for the Commander of a Schooner sailing from Newport to Havana. Some small holes and tears at corners of folds and traces of foxing. The three signatures and the writing are bold and clear. Presidential seal and tax stamp are intact. Framed.

2 ADDAMS, JANE, 1860-1935 ($100-150)

3 AMERICAN POETS ($125-200)

Poems written in their own hand by Charles Sprague (1791-1875), and Ella Wheeler Wilcox (1850-1919). The Sprague poem "Art" is beautifully written, 9 lines. "When from the Sacred Garden driven, Man fled before his Maker's wrath, an Angel left her place in Heaven, And crossed the Wanderer's sunless path..." The Wilcox poem is 8 lines. "On each life past; like costly flowers faded And cast away, are pleasures that are dead..." Fine autographs. [2]

CECIL B. DE MILLE
DIRECTOR GENERAL

August 15, 1924.

Mr. Henry Goddard Leach, Editor,
"The Forum", 247 Park Avenue,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Leach:

I have just arrived home from a vacation to find your letter relative to a coming article in "The Forum" on the naturalization of Japanese.

You are perhaps aware that I was the first motion picture producer to raise a Japanese to stardom. Mr. Sessue Hayakawa presented such splendid qualities of interpretation I felt the world should have them.

Since then, as a collector of rare objects, I have gained a great admiration for the artistic qualities inherent in the subjects of the Mikado.

I should regret any occurrence which deprived us of the good things of Japan just as I feel Japan would miss the values she has received from the United States.

I do not feel that this question of naturalization enters into the situation. If American residents of Japan desire to become Japanese subjects, then, of course, there would be occasion to take up the other side of the question. At present, however, the bulk of the argument sage to one side of the fence.

The Japanese are a splendidly clever, adroit people. They are intensely proud of their race and I doubt if the question of American naturalization bulks so strongly in their minds as other and more important phases of American-Nipponese relations.

Please accept my thanks for the pleasure of answering your query on this subject.

Very truly yours,

Cecil B. de Mille
